On Saturday the 13th of April, Tim will be appearing at The Filipino Community Centre, 92 Cuba Street, Petone Lower Hutt to facilitate a series of Self Defence Workshops which are open to the general public. He will cover the following topics:

1. From Threat to Attack
2. Third Party Protection
3. Active Shooter Scenario

“I’m excited and honoured to be making my way over to New Zealand again and I’m looking forward to meeting new people during my time there.” He said. He also adds, “These workshops are open to the general public, whether or not you’ve had previous experience in self-defence. Krav Maga is easy to learn, utilising the body’s natural reactions and instinctive movement to respond to attacks. Come and see what it’s all about! Come and gain the confidence and skills to protect yourself and others.”

Based in Brisbane Queensland Australia, Tim Alexander is one of the International Krav Maga Federation’s global leaders in teaching and facilitating Krav Maga workshops and seminars. His level of expertise has earned a place on the elite IKMF Global Instructor Team.

He is responsible to the International Krav Maga Federation Head Quarters (IKMF HQ), for the professional growth and developmental skills of IKMF Krav Maga in Australia and in New Zealand and Far East Asia.

In 2005, he established The Krav Maga Training Academy (KMTA) in Brisbane, Queensland Australia making him the Director and Chief Instructor. His qualifications and ongoing training and experience in Krav Maga include Military, Law Enforcement, Tactical Shooting, Civilian, Kids and the Women’s Stay Away program.

His exceptional background stems from a Bachelor of Psychology, with a triple Major in Clinical/Counselling, Social, and Developmental Psychology. For 18 years, Tim has worked in the Private Close Personal / VIP Protection Security sector, and continues to do so from time to time. For 8 years, Tim served in the Australian Army Reserve with the Military Police.
